Timeless Elegance Meets Modern Luxury in the Heart of Historic Charleston on the highly desirable Warren Street. Step into the perfect fusion of Charleston's rich heritage and contemporary sophistication with this masterfully renovated 1800s Charleston Single home. Nestled one of the most idyllic and walkable locations on the Peninsula, this residence offers the rare combination of serene city living with immediate access to celebrated shops, restaurants, and cultural landmarks. From the moment you arrive, the home exudes Southern charm. A handcrafted wrought iron gate (a striking piece from the legendary blacksmith Philip Simmons) welcomes you to a spacious lot with coveted off-street parking, framed by lush landscaping and shaded piazzas ideal for enjoying breezes year-round. Inside, historic character and refined finishes abound. Original hardwood floors and antique fireplaces echo the home's storied past, while a fully reimagined open floor plan offers effortless modern living. Custom-built cabinetry, refined lighting fixtures, and curated architectural details create an ambiance that is both elegant and inviting. The main level features a formal living room AND a gracious great room complete with a stylish wet bar and built in mini fridge- perfect for entertaining and seamlessly flows into a show-stopping chef's kitchen outfitted with
