DRASTIC PRICE DROP! ACT NOW BEFORE IT'S GONE! If you're a homebuyer searching for land, privacy, and a peaceful rural setting--but still want to be just minutes from town--this charming and unique white brick ranch is the perfect fit. Built in 1938, this timeless beauty sits on 3.30 acres of meticulously maintained grounds, surrounded by mature landscaping that offers both serenity and sophistication. It's the ideal blend of countryside tranquility and modern convenience, just 15 minutes from Lake Marion and a little over an hour to Charleston or Columbia. From the moment you arrive, you're greeted by classic character and thoughtful design. The spacious great room features two cozy fireplaces, elegant curved walls, and an open flow into the dining area perfect for entertaining or relaxed evenings at home. Original details like custom door hardware, built-ins, and unique architectural features are found throughout, adding to the home's rich personality. The kitchen is a true standout, with wood cabinetry, tile countertops, a large island, stained glass insets, a decorative tin ceiling, and a sunny eat-in area overlooking the backyard. Two sets of French doors and a nearby patio door invite you to enjoy the lovely screened porch, a peaceful retreat in any season. The split-bedroom layout offers privacy and practicality.
